Jane Lew, W.V.

Cedar, hand-laid fieldstone and brick create the rustic setting for this indoor pool, nestled in the hills of West Virginia.

A large arched window and sliding door provide generous lighting for the pool area, as well as a dramatic view of the Appalachian Mountains.

The 14-by-25-foot, pearl-white pool is accented with perimeter tiling that features a geometric pattern. Built-in seats and steps are highlighted with royal blue tile, and the pool's floor is adorned with a diamond-inlaid tile.

At night, the pool is lit up with perimeter fiber-optic lighting. ▼
