

Longnecker Pools and Spas

Olympia, Wash.

The owners of this pool wanted a taste of Italy inspired by designs from Las Vegas Hotels such as the Venetian and Bellagio. Longnecker Pools and Spas accomplished the feat by surrounding the pool area with gardens, an extensive arbor of 14 massive concrete columns, elegant stamped concrete and stairways.

These lead to a three-tiered fountain cascading into a basin patterned with deep blue tile, where water spews from the mouths of five girls.

The pool is covered by an under-track automatic cover, which is completely hidden when open, thereby eliminating a distraction from the picturesque surroundings. ■
